

Who Made Stevie Crye?

By Professor of Philosophy Michael Bishop

Fairwood Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 234 x 157 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Mary Stevenson Crye, a widowed young mother known as Stevie to family and friends, lives in a small Georgia town with her two children and a balky PDE Exceleriter. As a free-lance writer, she depends upon this device, once a state-of-the-art variety of typewriter, to generate income for her little clan. When the PDE Exceleriter goes noisily on the fritz, and a mess of things go wrong as a result-from her meeting with a weird young typewriter repairman named Seaton Benecke and Seaton's creepy pet, a monkey named Crets . . . to her repaired machine's tendency to type segments of her everyday life as she either lives or hallucinates it . . . to -well, just know that the horror of Stevie's husband's death from cancer, along with her concern for the sexual angst of her son Teddy and her fight to solve her problems via her literary calling, leads her not only to the doorstep of the fortuneteller, Sister Celestial, but also into even scarier descents into Southern Gothic darkness.
