

The Boy Scouts of the Flying Squadron

By Robert Shaler

Echo Library. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 56 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 5.8in. x 0.3in.Excerpt: . . . particular moment. There was indeed plenty to concern him in connection with the mysterious aeroplane that nightly circled the region, always accompanied by that strange explosion. Seems to me I can smell something queer like burnt powder, Bud presently remarked. Do meteors explode when they hit the earth, Hugh And would they send out a rank odor like that I dont happen to be up in the doings of meteors, Bud, answered the other, but I should think it might be something like that. Well all take a look after breakfast, and see what we can find. Perhaps it may surprise us. This seems to be a general all-around surprise party for the lot of us. We were taken aback to find Ralph here in the old shack; he had his surprise when he watched those two men carry on so queerly; then we had the shock last night of hearing thunder and seeing lightning when the sky was clear; after that, the fellow looking in at the window startled us. You were a little surprised your self, I reckon, Bud, at...
