Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from League of Library Commissions Year-Book: 1912 Three numbers of the Year-book of Library Commissions were published by the League, - in 1906, 1907, and 1908. In 1910, a Handbook was published. This gave a history of Commission work and of the League, and a full account of each Commission. It was planned to supplement this by annual Year-books, but none was published in 1911, as the subject-matter had not yet been definitely settled. In 1912, a Committee of the League made a report on what the Year-book should contain, and the Secretary was instructed to compile one. The Year-book is intended only to supplement the fuller information of the Handbook, and bring it to date. As to publications, each Commission was asked to furnish a list of those now in print. For complete lists, the Handbook should be consulted. In two states, Arkansas and Oklahoma, efforts are being made to secure the establishment of library commissions, but nothing definite can be reported for this Year-book. The compiler acknowledges with gratitude the assistance given by the various Commissions in furnishing information for the Year-book.
