Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Press and the Stage: An Oration This Oration is a reply to Mr. Dion Boucicault and other censors of the American Newspaper in its relation to Dramatic Art. It was written in compliance with the request of an old friend Mr. Albert M. Palmer, that I would participate in an amicable discussion of this subject at a meeting of the Goethe Society, of New York. The meeting was held in the Music Hall of the Brunswick Hotel, on Monday evening, January 28, 1889. Mr. Parke Godwin presided. Mr. Boucicault stated his case against the press, and this reply thereupon was spoken by me. Mr. Boucicault's oration, modified by the omission of his charges and insinuations asper sing the integrity of the press was subsequently published in the North American Review (March, 1889). My response appeared in Harper's Weekly (March 23, 1889). This oration, as now reprinted is precisely what it was when delivered, except that a few names of persons and titles of plays have been introduced into it, in addition to those...
