CHANGING PACIFIC FORESTS: HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES ON THE PACIFIC BASIN FOREST ECONOMY

Duke University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Changing Pacific Forests: Historical Perspectives on the Pacific Basin Forest Economy, John Dargavel, Richard P. Tucker, Changing Pacific Forests examines the forest-related economy of the Pacific Basin--including Japan, Malaysia, New Zealand, China, and the Philippines--from a historical perspective. Drawing on a 1991 conference sponsored by the Forest History Society and the International Union of Forestry Research Organizations held in Honolulu, these papers address a range of topics related to the changing Pacific forests, including the remnants of colonialism, the emergence of the Third World, people and resources caught in the middle of policy decisions, land management, national forests, and subsistence use of the forest by indigenous peoples. Essays also explore macroeconomic theories of international trade and the interests of the United States and the former Soviet Union in the economic health of the region. Changing Pacific Forests will be of interest to scholars of the economy and environment of the Pacific Basin as well as of land management and the history of land use in general. Contributors. Charles S. Backman, Thomas R. Cox, John Dargavel, Elizabeth Flint, Lim Hin Fui, G. R. Henning, Kenneth E. Jackson, Hiroaki Kakizawa, Nicholas K. Menzies, Andrew Price, John F. Richards, Jr., M. M. Roche, I. Gustin M. Tantra, Conrad Totman, Richard P. Tucker, Thomas R. Waggener.
